

ANTHROPOLOGY EXAM 1
CHAPTERS 1-4

Chapter 1

1. What do anthropologists do in each of its four fields?
2. How is anthropology different from other disciplines?
3. How do anthropologists conduct research?
4. How do anthropologists face ethical challenges that emerge through conducting Anthropological research?
5. What can anthropology contribute to the understanding of globalization?

Chapter 2

1. How does the evolutionary theory differ from creation stories?
2. How are living things classified and how did this system come about?
3. What is evolution and when was this theory formulated?
4. What is the molecular basis of evolutions?
5. How do cells and organisms reproduce?
6. How do different traits get inherited across generations?

7. How do the 4 evolutionary forces contribute to the diversity of life on earth?

8. Examples of human adaption through natural selection?

9. How are new species formed?

Chapter 4

1. What is the basic outline of mammalian primate evolution and related geological events?

2. What is the anatomy of bipedalism and how do we recognize the human line in the fossil record form?

3. How do we differentiate the earliest of bipeds from one another?