Chapter 7

Ross Saxton

What can we learn from a board game?

- Initial equality dramatically increases the average person's chances of succeeding in life

(Society starts out in a more equitable situation- Children's Opportunity Trust, Individual Inheritance Accounts and Ind. Retirement Accounts)

- Annual dividends distributed equally helps too (collect $200 and go- e.g. a Permanent Fund)
- But I'm not so sure about "get out of jail free" cards...

$Cha Ching$

- American Permanent Fund

Sources:

- selling pollution permits, water consumption permits, etc.

- charge corporations for using the public trading system (create “fancy doormen”)

“Cushion of reliable income”
