

Class Demonstration

Objective: To explore the many products which are derived from tropical areas.

Plant description

- perennial or annual
- size of plant
- general description
- plant adaptation

Culture of plant

- cropping cycle
- plant propagation
- major pests and diseases
- field or green/screen house production
- major production areas

Use

- food, medicinal, ornamental, industrial
- briefly describe the uses

References

- references should be from credible sources

Grading of the Demonstration Presentation: 40 points each

Scorable item	Possible points	Points awarded	Comments
Quality of plant/product shown	5
Quality and completeness of the information summarized	20
Credibility of the information sources used	5
Quality of the presentation	5
Promptness: was the presentation sheet handed in a day before class to allow copying for the class	5

One additional Demonstration Presentation may be done for 30 points of extra credit.