

1982-01

Spring 1982

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIV The Optimal Schedule for the Opening of Buildings in an Office Complex

Scot G. Andrus

The Optimal Schedule for the Opening of Buildings in an Office Complex

by

Scot G. Andrus

DEPARTMENT OF OPERATIONS RESEARCH AND ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE

DALLAS, TEXAS 75275

The Optimal Schedule for the Opening of Buildings in an Office Complex

by
Scot G. Andrus

Senior Design in Engineering Management

OREM 4390

Presented

29 April, 1982

Assistant Professor:

Dr. Richard S. Barr

CONTENTS

Subject	Page
The Problem	2
The Model	2
Definition of the Model	3
Definition of the Variables	3
Assumptions	4
Definition of the Coefficients	5
The Formulated Model	5
The Optimal Solution	6
Conclusion	7
 Tables
I - The Optimal Rent-out Schedule	9
II- Net Profit per Building	10
III-Demand for Office Space	11
IV- Sale Value of the Buildings	11
V - Net Operating Income	12
VI- Construction Costs	13