

Humanities- Study of humans

-What's going on?

-Where did we come from?

-blah blah blah

philosophize about what it means!

literature tries to answer the questions that cannot be asked

What is the authors point of view?

difference between culture vs material?

we assume material identifies people. people avoid making a distinction between material world now and then family and friends make us!

this class is about people civilization- city or village