

Week 5 Assignment

Incorporating Statistics, Graphs and Illustration's

Using visuals will be most appropriate for my topic. I am planning on putting visuals in the middle and ending of my paper. I believe these visuals will help to support my argument by showing exactly what it is I have to say about my topic. In doing so, it will help grab my reader's attention and get the details across to them appropriately. I would like for my paper to have a huge influence on my readers, and I believe these visuals will help me to just that.

Should discrimination be tolerated?

No one deserves to be discriminated.
