

Watch this short YouTube video about earliest found objects:

10 Oldest Objects Ever Found

Which one did you find the most interesting?

-Animal Figurines

What do you see as a problem with classifying an object as the “earliest” of its type? (Choose one.)

- On what authority does someone claim an object is the earliest?
 - Another, earlier object can be, and usually is, identified within a short period of time.
 - The object might easily have served some other purpose.
 - The object is not very important.
-

Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of Paleolithic humans?

The creation of sophisticated artwork.

The use of fire.

The development of an alphabet.

The commemoration of events or people.

Think about the home, or one of the homes, you grew up in. What percentage of the rooms in your home contained objects that might reasonably be described as “religious”?

- 0-20%.
- 21-40%.
- 41-70%.
- 71-100%.