

Selected Slides Chapter 6 Memory

Information Processing Model – 3 stages

Three Stage Process of Memory: Info enters sensory system, briefly registers in sensory memory. Selective attention moves info into STM where it is held while attention (rehearsal) continues. If it receives enough rehearsal it enters LTM

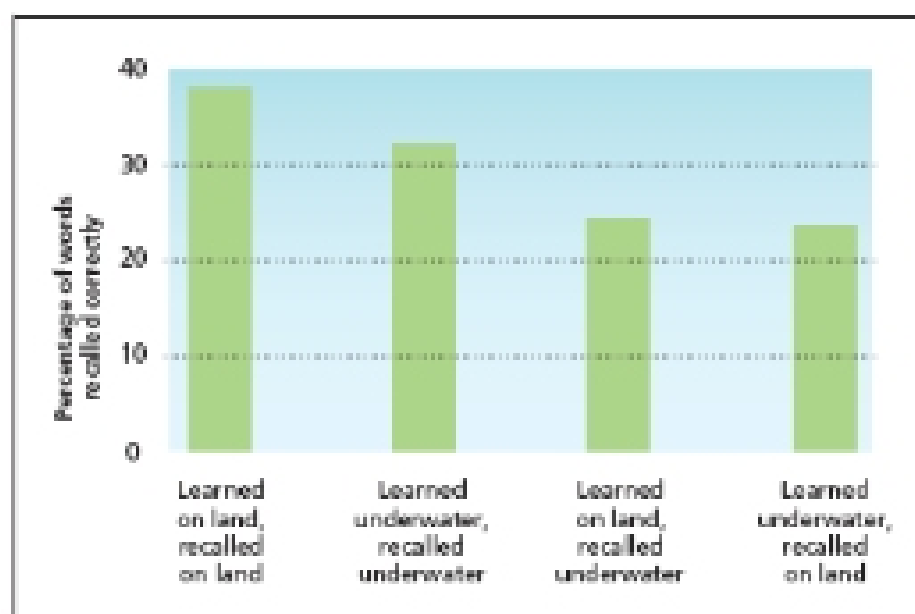

Types of long term memory

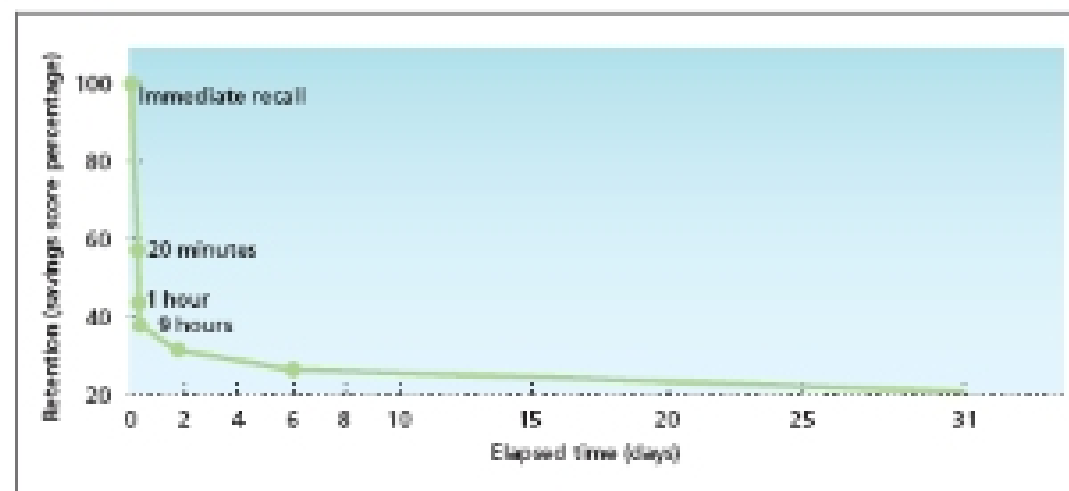

Serial Position Effect

Kinds of cues that help people remember

Ebbinghaus Curve of Forgetting

Proactive Interference vs. Retroactive Interference

