

PHY 6200

Theoretical Mechanics

Chapter 9

Motion in a non-inertial reference frame

Prof. Claude A Pruneau

Notes compiled by L. Tarini

Introduction

- Sometimes it is simply easier to write equations in a non-inertial reference frame.
 - E.g. Motion near the surface of the Earth
 - A non inertial reference frame

Rotating coordinate systems

