

Sociology 104
Final Exam Review

Theories, Concepts, & Names

Differential Association

Edwin Sutherland

Rational Choice Theory

Bounded Rationality

Labeling Theory

William Chambliss

Saints & Roughnecks

DL Rosenhan

Moral Panics

Stanley Cohen

Howard Becker

Goode & Ben-Yehuda

McMartin preschool

Judy Johnson

Peggy McMartin Buckey

Virginia McMartin

Drug Prohibition

Edgewater homeless

Philippe Bourgois

- o What do the authors of Righteous Dopefiend think about_____?
- o According to the authors of Righteous Dopefiend, which of the following statements about _____ is TRUE?
- o According to Righteous Dopefiend, which of the following statements is FALSE?

Character List

Tina

Carter

- o Righteous Dopefiend (pgs. 1-45)
 - moral economy
 - habitus
 - symbolic violence
 - “lumpen abuse”
 - intimate apartheid
 - neoliberalism

Practice Questions

1.) Which of the following is NOT one of Goode and Ben-Yehuda's dimensions of a moral panic?

- A. Timing
- B. Folk Devils
- C. Biopower
- D. Disproportionality

2.) Who was Judy Johnson?

- A. She tried to defend herself and her daycare center against wrongful accusations of molestation
- B. She tried to have the workers from the McMartin daycare center arrested on molestation charges
- C. She sought political advantage by capitalizing on the child abuse issue during her mayoral campaign
- D. She tried to raise awareness among social workers about a phenomenon she called "satanic ritual abuse"

3.) When Billy was a teenager his older brother Mark taught him how to shoplift. At first Billy didn't want to do it, but his brother explained to him that they aren't hurting anyone because the big corporations they are stealing from have lots of money. Billy's brother also showed him how exciting it was to steal, and that it was fun to get something for free.

Which theory of crime best explains why Billy shoplifts now?

- A. Differential Association Theory
- B. Rational Choice Theory
- C. Labeling Theory
- D. Dramaturgy

4.) Al and Sonny are cross-ethnic "running partners." Which of the following BEST describes their relationship (pg. 44-45)?

- A. Al always takes care of Sonny, often putting Sonny's needs above his own.
- B. Al and Sonny never fail to share every gram of heroin with each other.
- C. Al and Sonny are never seen together in front of the other Edgewater homeless.
- D. Al and Sonny frequently argued with one another, yet they still have a strong friendship.

5.) Which one of the following is NOT consistently associated with elevated levels of homelessness in any given city? (Righteous Dopefiend, pg. 148)

- A. High property taxes
- B. High rents
- C. High levels of income inequality
- D. Low rental vacancy rates

6.) Which of the following examples best describes the “moral economy” in Righteous Dopefiend?

- A. The Edgewater residents panhandle (beg for money) to buy heroin
- B. The Edgewater homeless allow Philippe Bourgois and Jeff Schonberg to interview and photograph them
- C. The Edgewater homeless maintain a generous reputation and share their heroin with members who are experiencing heroin withdrawals in order to protect themselves from withdrawals in the future
- D. The Edgewater homeless help pay for clinical treatment for those members suffering from addiction.

7.) According to Goode and Ben-Yehuda, an exaggerated response to a perceived moral threat is called:

- A. disproportionality
- B. culture of fear
- C. differential association
- D. folk deviling

8.) According to Bourgois and Schonberg, the “harm reduction” outreach initiatives, such as needle exchanges, were ineffective because:

- A. Most of the homeless were already infected with hepatitis-C
- B. Harm reduction did not include education-based interventions
- C. Harm reduction clashed with the moral economy of the street
- D. The homeless refused to attend counseling sessions

9.) Bourgois and Schonberg note (pg. 26 and 37) that only a few Latinos live with the Edgewater homeless. Which of the following is Latino?

- A. Felix
- B. Tina
- C. Paco
- D. Hank

10.) Bourgois and Schonberg attribute the reduction of federal funded programs for the poor and the emergence of obsolete manual workers in San Francisco in the 80s and 90s to ____ (Ch.5)?

- A. Agency
- B. Progressivism
- C. Populism
- D. Neoliberalism