

Week 1 discussion 2

Discuss ways that the basic concepts we have discussed in this chapter directly impact your life. Provide specific examples to support your response.

I think the reading the early part of Chapter one about the primary objectives of an MBA program, struck home with me, particularly the attributes of successful companies:

1. Skilled people at all levels including the senior leaders, managers and the workforce.
2. Strong relationships with groups outside the company
3. Sufficient funding to execute their plans and support operations

I don't plan to open my own business or join with other partners to create a partnership or company; however, I hope by obtaining a MBA I can be a better leader/manager at the Federal Agency that currently work
