

Chapter 12 - Photography and Time-Based Media

11/13/2012

▣ Eadweard Muybridge - Annie G, Canterring, Saddled

- Inspired other artists

▣

▣ Photography

- Phos - light
- Graphos - "writing"

▣

▣ Walker Evans - Roadside Store between Tuscaloosa and Greensboro

- Example of just such "instant collage"
- Evans's mission as a photographer was to capture every aspect of American visual reality.

▣

▣ Early History

- The word camera is the Latin word for “room”
- Camera obscura was routinely used by artists to copy nature accurately.
- In England William Henry Fox Talbot presented a process for fixing negative images on paper coated with light sensitive chemicals a process called photogenic drawing.
- In France, a different process which yielded a positive image on a polished metal was named the daguerreotype.

□

William Henry Fox Talbot - Mimosoidea Suchas

-

□

Louis Jacques Mande Daguerre - Le Boulevard du Temple

□

□

Richard Beard - Maria Edgeworth

□

□

Talbot - The Open Door

- Was the first artistic picture that changed the way we used the Calotype.