

ORACLE ADF tutorial:

Open a new application workspace.

Change the application template to Web Application (Default). This allows us to specify the technology used in the application to simplify and personalize the environment according to the technology preferences.

Open a Business Component diagram.